

Local cable facilities are a monopoly. For the vast majority of residences, there is no cable alternative for speed and latency. I am opposed to the operation of a government sanctioned monopoly that is not appropriately regulated in the public interest.